

I am writing as a concerned citizen regarding the proposed relaxation of ownership rules as currently governed by the FCC. I believe that the current rules are effective in preventing the concentration of media ownership and thereby protect artists, small business owners and the public's right to a diverse selection of media options. Please do not relax any of the ownership rules.